Facility Growth

As you may know included in this years fiscal budget, we are looking to add additional store staff members in hopes to ensure each store is self sustainable. We are in the process of interviewing multiple individuals to fill these positions and hopeful that they will serve and provide the utmost respect and customer service to our customers as well as being a team player within the stores. If you know anyone who is looking for an incredible job opportunity and is willing to provide outstanding customer service, please direct them here to us at the main office. We have also implemented select Training Stores for new hires to ensure that they are receiving proper training and are receiving the same training on policies and procedures across the board. Stores 1, 3, 13, and 26 will be the stores that new hires will complete a 4 week training process to ensure our new employees will be equipped with the knowledge and skills to uphold the expectations that we have for all of our employees. As always we appreciate all of your hard work and dedication and are excited to see where this growth and change excels our stores quality of customer service as well as morale. Once again thank you for all you guys do!
